

Dylan Frankland

78 Buchanan Gardens,
London NW10 5AE

07875080474
dylanfrankland@yahoo.co.uk

EDUCATION

2013-2016

The University of Exeter, BA (Hons) Drama (First Class Honours)

EMPLOYMENT

KILL THE CAT THEATRE: 2016 - Date

www.killthecattheatre.co.uk

Managing and directing all projects, curation of social media (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and YouTube), tour booking and fundraising. Successfully securing Arts Council England funding for 4 different projects, as well as funding from Feast Cornwall, Theatre Deli, Hall For Cornwall and Upstart Theatre.

The House Never Wins - Producer and Director. Oct 2019-Date

Commissioned by Upstart Theatre, an interactive online game experience about the climate crisis, self isolation and gambling for the planet. Re-developed for a digital tour of UK theatres, previews running in May 2020.

TALK- Producer and Director. Dec 2018- Date

An interactive theatre piece exploring connection and loneliness. Touring 2021.

A Pint Sized Conversation- Producer and Director Jun 2018-Mar 2020

A performance about mental health focusing on those who support/ care for those with depression. Touring pubs, universities and business. Endorsed by Rethink Mental Illness as 'powerful and enlightening'.

PAST PLEASURES: Sep 2018 - May 2020

Historical Interpreter for Tower of London, Hampton Court Palace, Dover Castle and Audley End House. Working with the education teams to create enriching experiences for visiting families, assisting with the creation of unique immersive experiences on different sites and undergoing training to become a professional historical fool. This role required excellent historical research, communication and improvisational skills.

LOVE'S VICTORY Aug - Sep 2018

Performer in the first professional production of this early modern play, previously ignored by the canon. Commissioned by University of Lancashire and Peshurst Place.

PLOP! Aug- Oct 2017

Deviser and Performer. Working with storyteller Sarah Mooney and Wassail Theatre, I co-devised and performed a family theatre show about plastic pollution.

SKILLS

Mental Health First Aider

Photoshop, InDesign, Adobe Illustrator, Premier.